ABOUT BROWN

Brown Charité doesn't speak about resilience — he has walked it. After 561 miles across France and Spain on the Camino de Santiago, through divorce, loss, and rebuilding from zero, Brown turned devastation into direction and surrender into strategy. Today he serves corporations, executive teams, and founders through keynotes, workshops, and his signature Executive Camino Reset.

When Brown takes your stage, your audience doesn't just leave inspired — they leave transformed.
