ABOUT BROWN

Brown Charité Sr. doesn't just speak about resilience — he has walked it. 561 miles across Europe on the Camino de Santiago, through divorce, loss, and starting over, he rebuilt his life, his mission, and his message from the ground up. Today he serves faith-based communities, pastors, ministry leaders, and the men and women in their orbit through keynotes, workshops, his Executive Camino Reset, and a 12-book leadership ecosystem on obedience, covenant, and whole-person leadership.
